WALLACE: ...Let me give you some advice, through song.

Moderately $\frac{d}{\text{bass}} = 100$

molto rall.

A tempo

You've got to live for the moment

the moment is always now

You'll never get anywhere

If you
sit around and pout

So when trouble starts

brewing stand right up and ask for more!

Make

life worth living for!

Some
people are destined for greatness
Spread your wings and start to soar!

A tempo

for! For what is a man? It cuts like a knife If that man can't chase the dream of his life
That man is nothing!

Somewhere my dream's a-waiting
out beyond

yond the open door!
Make life worth living for! The challenge you face can't stop you at all

Just pick yourself up if ever you fall

Elleanor's out there, she's wait-ing for me, it's a call I can-not ig-nore!

I'll go the dis-tance and make it al-right, make life worth liv-ing for!

WALLACE: Go get 'em, Eddy!

WALLACE make
A little slower, $q = 90$  molto rall.

A tempo $q = 100$

life worth living for!
