The Legend of Bunny Isle

EASTER: You know how some musicals end with a big final group number with a summation of the musical’s overarching themes and stuff? We’re not that kind of musical. We’re contemporary. And...since I have an audience, I’m gonna use it for my sales pitch. When you’re freelance, you gotta take every opportunity you get, you know?

raise a smile So ma-ny bun-nies jump a round with lit-tle bun-ny bur-rows dug un-der the ground The le-gend of Bun-ny Isle_ work comes from the rank and file_ So ma-ny car rots grown each year_ each lit-tle bun-ny has its own ca-ree_ And all the is-land’s pro-ducts are or-ga-ni-cally grown Our ir-ri-ga-tion sys-tem runs on so lar a lone And ev’ry bit of waste gets used E-ven the pel-lets You’d be a-mused! The le-gend of Bun-ny Isle_ Hop on down it’s worth your while It used to be o-ver-stuffed with fluff_ But now we feel it’s just e-nough
Hosts cute floofs with lots of style Bows and bow-ties similar and frilly frocks

Not to mention some luscious locks
The legend of Bun-ny Isle Says that bun-nies go the extra mile Ev'-ry bun's trained to entertain

They sing, they dance, they ease your pain

Ex-EASTER: Just kidding, of course we need a final group number!
[bring out the tap shoes!]

Pretend you're a tap dancer and you have a solo!
OR, just do a standard jazz break rhythm may be shocked and wondering why. We've let our lovely leading lady hang out to dry. Well that I'll share, bun bun doo wah.

here's the secret that I'll share, consumption. Does not care.
