I'm any better than these people all around us who are BILLY: “I don't have your kind of pride”
I was born to be a loser.

I have no future. And high R'n'R licks

busy R'n'R
in here, I'm safer than I was at home.

If I had...
-No Better Than My Father-

taken one more pill,

I might have spared myself the chill that comes with knowing I'm entirely alone.

I'm no better than my father.
In the end, I'm just an BILLY: "That's one thing I can't deny."
They try to medicate the grief.
