America

So close, I almost hear i-

So close, I almost feel i-

\( \text{America} \)
The wind that's calling

just to me

So close to finally breaking the chains that now are straining

Ed

Ng to keep me ground

Pno.

Ed

cos I'll be free!

Pno.

Ed

don't care if the streets aren't

Pno.

Ed

paved with gold, 'cos any

Pno.
Ed

where is a dream from what I've known.

Ed

I'll start again in America.

Ed

Where they...
Ed

So far ab-

So far it over my shad-

o-ow.

cannot reach all

the dreams it

drenched in darkness

for too long!
I don't care if the sun will never shine.

There's light enough in the past I've left behind.

On my own,

there has a scar to their name. America...
Just let me try, let me go, let me run, let me feel what I have been denied.

Dream like the pride which I swallowed to hide, long ago and it broke me inside.
Just let me free, let me choose, let me see, let me finally fly!

In America!

Where they don't give a damn for the scar on your face, 'cos ed everyone there has a scar to their name. My past will erase. I'll finally feel safe. I know I can make it... Am-
