1. What do you see when you look at a tree How do you feel gazing at a sunset

Is there a face that you cannot erase all of these treasures live deep inside you

You can recall any person or place all you require is your painting palette

You can paint blue-birds or white silky clouds thunderstorms sunshine and fields of flowers *cue-(Samuel) Close your eyes Howard. Now tell me, what do you see?

You have the power a paint-brush is your magic wand In this life you're never lost you're never lonely if you have your paint and brush with just a piece of chalk or pencil you can find a friend to cheer you on your way even if the stars should fade away hold on you can bring them back with just your brush

In this world are endless wonders mysteries and undrums miracles and dreams

You must look beyond the surface trust your instincts find what others fail to see ever you should

Any-thing you can con-ceive you can make it so all your wishes and your schemes hold tight and don't let go sometimes people steal what they promise you - some will take your heart and abandon you

Who can say what life has in store for you - you must keep this lightburning inside of you

Never Journey too far from the boy you are

In this world are endless wonders mysteries and commitments miracles and dreams

I must look beyond the surface trust my instincts find what others fail to see ever you should
